

Salt Lake Society

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Moore of Long Beach, Cal., announced the marriage of their niece, Edith Snider Mudgett, to Dr. David Harry Hines, both of this city. The marriage took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Sherman Wallace, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church, at his study.

The bride is society editor of the Salt Lake Telegram and is popular in social and club circles of the city. Dr. Hines is one of Salt Lake's prominent dentists.

The marriage of Miss Lydia Hoglund and Owen J. Bailey took place Wednesday at noon in the Salt Lake temple. A reception followed last evening at the home of the bridegroom on East Fourth South street.

The living room was decorated in pink sweet peas and roses. In the dining room a pink and blue color scheme was carried out. Pink sweet peas in a crystal basket formed a centerpiece for the table. Blue ribbon streamers extended from the chandelier. Pink candles in crystal holders were on the buffet.

The bride wore a simple gown of white organdy, with a veil and orange blossoms. One of the bridesmaids, Miss Violet Bailey, wore pink voile, and the other, Miss Glenda Hoglund, wore orange voile.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. A. Hoglund, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roushew, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Anderson and Owen A. Bailey, father of the bridegroom. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Mildred Bailey and Miss Edith Strong.

The couple will be at home at 218 Heather street after May 1.

Miss Laura Timpson and Alex Anderson were married last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride on Kensington avenue. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Lloyd. A reception followed.

The rooms were decorated in pink sweet peas and carnations. Sweet peas in a basket formed the centerpiece for the supper table.

The bride wore a cream brocaded silk net over satin, with a veil and orange blossoms. She carried bride roses, with a shower of lilacs of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Alice Timpson, wore pale pink net over blue tulle and carried pink roses. Ruon Garn was best man.

Assisting in receiving were the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Timpson; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Timpson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Anderson, parents of the bridegroom.

The couple will be at home after May 1 at the Granite apartments, Sugarhouse.

The Nancy Girls of the O. E. S. were entertained Tuesday evening by Miss Helen Jamieson at her home, 1444 Gilmer avenue. Light refreshments were served. The decorations were in spring flowers. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. P. D. Jamieson.

The girls' club, which is a junior auxiliary to Mirpah chapter, is working for the establishment of a children's ward in the new Masonic home. Fourteen were in attendance.

The Radiant Girls of the O. E. S. were entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. H. B. Dawson at her home in the Woodruff apartments. Refreshments were served following a business meeting.

The decorations were in yellow and white. A crystal bowl of daisies formed a centerpiece for the supper table.

Mrs. Dawson was assisted by Miss Florence Wickens. Four of the officers of Radiant chapter were in attendance—Mrs. L. M. Brumbaugh, Mrs. Joseph Leavitt, Mrs. R. W. Soper and Mrs. W. M. Dodge. Plans were made for some future work. The girls in attendance numbered seventeen.

J. L. Tuck of 647 East Fourth South street, announced the marriage of his daughter, Irene Tuck, to Dr. J. H. Reardon, formerly of Salt Lake. The wedding took place in Los Angeles on Friday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. I. Myers of the Broadway Christian church of Los Angeles, their home at 841 Summit avenue, Mermosa Beach, Cal.

Mrs. R. P. Flagel entertained at bridge tea Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Second West street in honor of her cousin, Miss Sara Quayle, a bride of May.

A yellow color scheme was carried out in the decoration. Daffodils in a wicker basket formed a centerpiece for the tea table. The bride was as Quayle. The guests included, besides the guest of honor, Mrs. Ernes Quayle, Miss Doris Auerhahn, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Hazel Hill, Mrs. Alfred Clawson, Mrs. C. T. Flagel, Miss Maud Burton, Miss Irene Ficklen, Miss Ruth Picknell, Miss Ruth Swenney, Miss Ida Quayle, Miss Ella Quayle, Miss Persis Quayle, Miss Asenath Quayle and Miss Julianne Quayle.

Mr. and Mrs. Kearney K. Steffen entertained at a musicale and supper last Wednesday night at their home, 215 H street, in honor of Mrs. R. C. Easter, who has recently arrived from New York.

Music was furnished by David Reese, Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris and Mrs. Mattie Reed Evans.

The rooms were decorated in yellow tulips. The ceremony was assisted by Mrs. Grace Woolley Clawson. The guests numbered fifteen.

El Exito club members were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred G. Dust at her home on Lincoln avenue. Daisies in a crystal bowl as a centerpiece harmonized with a yellow and white color scheme in the table decorations. The place cards were hand painted in daisies. Mrs. William S. Rawlings was a special guest. The club members include Mrs. Jenky Thomas, Mrs. Albert Powell, Mrs. Joseph Anderson, Mrs. C. A. Woolley, Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. King Thomas, Mrs. Albert Zobel and Mrs. William Anderson.

Miss Jack Vincelli entertained the members of the ladies' auxiliary to the Greeters of Utah at luncheon Wednesday at her home on West Fourth South street. A brass basket of violets and jonquils, introducing the club colors, was the centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for Mrs. Ralph L. Loughborough, Mrs. W. E. Coulam, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. B. B. Ramsey, Mrs. W. P. Bressingham, Mrs. B. O. Yeamans, Mrs. J. J. Acomb and Mrs. C. L. Casady.

Mrs. William Howard Tibbals entertained at an informal tea Wednesday afternoon at her home, 380 D street in honor of Miss Mildred Tibbals of San Francisco, who is her guest. The guests were limited to a few close friends of Miss Tibbals.

Mrs. J. C. Leslie entertained a number of little folks Monday afternoon at her home, 304 Belvedere apartments, in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her son, Russell Kyle Leslie.

The tea table had a birthday cake holding seven pink candles as a centerpiece, with baskets of pink rose buds at each end.

Covers were laid for William Hayden, Hunter Newton, Albert Miller, Sherrie Virginia Witcher, Vera Jeanne Reynolds, Kathryn Hall, Madeline Brown, Bernice Smith and Marjorie Erickson.

Miss Grace Virginia Johnson, of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, and J. Leo Jensen, were married last Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle, Emil Forsberg, 4260 South Second East street, Murray. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Emil Erickson of the Murray Second ward.

A reception followed for relatives and close friends. The rooms were decorated in spring flowers. Miss Elso Anderson was bridesmaid and Frederick F. Jensen was best man. The couple will be at home in Murray at 4535 South Fourth West street.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Lydia Hoglund and Owen J. Bailey. The wedding took place Tuesday in the Salt Lake temple. A reception was given in the evening at the home of the bridegroom, 557 East Fourth South street.

Miss Ruth Harriet Grundman of Bella, Iowa, and Clarence William Rogaus of Rupert, Idaho, were married at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in the study of the pastor of the First Methodist church, Dr. J. H. N. Williams. Dr. Williams performed the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Rupert.

Mrs. Eliza Arrington announces the marriage of her daughter, Eva, to H. J. Johnson of Seattle. The wedding took place in Portland, Monday, April 12. The couple will make their home in Seattle.

In the presence of relatives, the marriage of Miss Marguerite, Winmar and Vernon G. Clemensen took place last Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Winmar, 601 East Third South street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elmer I. Goshen.

Members of the Entre Nous club were entertained at "500" followed by tea by Mrs. M. Z. Forscutt, Monday at her home, 63 West First North.

Yellow jonquils in a crystal basket was the centerpiece for the tea table. The hostess was assisted by her niece, Miss Helen White. Mrs. Henry Johnson and Mrs. Matt Rumph were extra guests.

The girls of the Sunset club, an East high school girls' society gave a dance last Tuesday night at the Country club at 8:30 o'clock. More than 200 guests, chiefly from the East high school, were in attendance. The decorations were in lavender and yellow. The girls on the executive committee were Miss Mildred Engles, Miss Lillian Brown, Miss Gladys Reilly, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Irene Best and Miss Clarice Tanner.

The Evans Jazz orchestra furnished music. Punch and candy were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz of Portland, Ore., are guests of former Governor and Mrs. Heber M. Wells, on their home from New York. Mr. Katz is Mrs. Wells' brother.

Miss Helen Spalding, editor of the Green River Dispatch, was a Salt Lake visitor Tuesday evening, en route home from a two months' visit on the Pacific coast.

The question of a decrease in a recent raise in dues in the Ladies' Literary club was considered in a meeting of the club Friday afternoon. A new amendment to the by-laws of the club was voted upon provides for the yearly dues of $7 instead of $10, as the recent increase provided. The initiation fee, which is $10, will become $15 if the new by-law is adopted.

Preceding the meeting, luncheon, the last of the series for the year, was served by the entertainment committee at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. J. H. N. Williams, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist church, who has recently returned from Berkeley, Cal., was the guest of honor at a luncheon and tea at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dayton, 1037 East South Temple street, given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church.

The decorations were in yellow and lavender. Jonquils in a crystal basket, with lavender maline on the hampers formed the centerpiece for the tea table.

Mrs. Dayton was assisted by Mrs. E. O. Lee, Mrs. L. D. Fenslee, Mrs. R. J. Evans, Mrs. Newell Beeman and other members of the society.

Mrs. D. W. McAllister entertained at a buffet luncheon Thursday at her home on P street in honor of Miss Theresa McAllister, a spring bride. The table decorations were in yellow jonquils in a silver vase formed a centerpiece with yellow ribbons radiating from it to the edges of the table.

Crink snapdragons and roses were used in the living room. The afternoon was spent in hemming linen for the bride's trousseau. The guests were Miss McAllister, Mrs. George McAllister, Mrs. Alvin A. Beesley, Mrs. James S. Morgan, Mrs. Margaret L. Budd, Mrs. Durant, Mrs. William Sears, Mrs. Camilla Cobb, Mrs. W. N. Wilson, Mrs. C. R. Rowe, Mrs. A. O. Wiley, Mrs. S. C. Robbins, Mrs. Myron Crandall, Mrs. Rufus Cobb, Mrs. William Perkins, Mrs. Louis R. Felt, Mrs. Ruth Hatch, Mrs. Malcolm McAllister, Mrs. Ernest Perkins, Mrs. Josiah Perkins, La Prele Major, Miss Jeannette Howe, Miss Vilate McAllister and Miss Eliza Keyser.

Miss Verna Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rhodes, whose engagement to Clarence Christenson is announced by the bride's parents.

The Utopia club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. M. Bailey at her home, 231 South First West street. Luncheon was followed by sewing. Jonquils in a basket formed a centerpiece for the table. The place cards were hand-painted in jonquils.

Mrs. Fred Stibel was an extra guest. The club members are Mrs. J. Cushman, Mrs. Royal C. Olson, Mrs. James Hall, Mrs. R. H. Seaman, Mrs. J. L. Karren, Mrs. J. C. Cond, Mrs. W. H. Chesley, Mrs. W. E. Samuelsen, Mrs. C. Lyon, and Mrs. O. P. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Moore of Long Beach, Cal., left Friday for her home and spending several weeks with their niece, Mrs. Harry D. Hines formerly Miss Edith Mudgett.

Mrs. Walter Nelson of San Francisco is recovering from an illness at the Holy Cross hospital and is at home to her friends at 554 Sixth East street.

Mrs. E. T. Jones of Sunnyside, Utah, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. John Sharp, on East South Temple street.

Mrs. H. G. Whitney and daughter, Mrs. Harold Felt, have gone to Long Beach and Venice, Cal., for a visit of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kummel of Tokio, Japan, who have been at the Hotel Utah for several days, have left for New York and Europe. Mrs. Henry Clay Brownlee of Salt Lake, mother of Mrs. Kummel, accompanied them.

Mr. Yamaguchi, also of Tokio, is in the city en route to New York City, where he will enter school.

Brigham Society

BRIGHAM, April 25.—The Central Camps of the Daughters of the Pioneers met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ida K. Lee, who is honorary president of the organization. After the regular business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Wright and Mrs. Amelia H. Wright entertained the ladies with several old time songs and many incidents were recalled of early experiences in the organization. Mrs. Lee was presented with a silver card tray as a token of appreciation for the work she accomplished during her term of office. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Those present were: Mesdames Jane E. Comp, Lydia W. Forsgren, Amelia H. Wright, Elizabeth H. Wright, Lucy P. Holton, Olive B. Hanson, Orpha H. Stout, Claudia P. Beecher, Lottie M. Simonsen and Rachel Evans.

A meeting of the executive council of the Boxelder High School Alumni association was held Tuesday evening at the library. It was decided to hold the alumni banquet and dance at the high school Saturday evening, May 15. Invitations for this affair will be sent out immediately to all alumni members.

Miss Estelle Jensen presented her pupil, Miss Lucille Billings in a piano-forte recital at the high school assembly Monday evening. A large crowd attended and hearty applause greeted Miss Billings, whose playing was excellent. She was assisted in the entertainment by Miss Lotta Petty, who gave some fancy dances in costume.

Miss Crystal Jeppson presented her advanced pupils in a piano recital at the Third ward chapel Monday evening. Wonderful skill was shown by those taking part and pieces by the world's most famous composers were rendered. Excellent technique was shown by the pupils under Miss Jeppson's instruction. Many out-of-town guests were present, besides those from Brigham. The young ladies taking part were: Miss Vera Dewey, Miss Margaret Egger, Miss Fay Stone and Miss Blanche Hunsaker.

Mrs. Orson Hudson entertained in formally at her home Thursday evening. Progressive "500" was enjoyed after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames LeRoy E. Young, George M. Fisk, C. H. Bryan, W. H. Gleave, W. L. Holst, J. E. Ryan, W. I. Hargis, and Dr. E. A. Weymuller.

Miss Myrtle Dunn entertained at her home Wednesday evening. Progressive "500" was enjoyed and prizes for high and low scores were won by Miss Grace Forsgren and Bervard Nichols. The rooms were decorated with pink sweet peas. A two-course luncheon was served at the close of the evening. The guests were Miss Grace Forsgren, Gwendivere Kotter, Miriam Evans, Messrs. La Mont Glover, Bervard Nichols, De Von Neilson and Franklin Peterson.

A parcel shower was given Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Fred Jensen, formerly Miss Chloette Wilson, at the home of Mrs. Lane Thompson, with Miss Anna Jensen, Miss Neil Jensen and Mrs. W. C. Walker acting as hostesses. Social games were enjoyed during the evening and many beautiful presents were received by the young bride. At the close of the evening a light luncheon was served. Those present besides the guest of honor, were: Mesdames Zina Jensen, Lana Thompson, R. Laneville, Leona Pruitt, Eliza Stokes, Leo Johnson, Joseph Josephson, Brigham Jensen, Kenneth Jensen, K. S. Jensen, L. F. Jensen, Elias Jensen, Hyrum Jensen Arthur Munns, Eugene Crompton, Thomas Crompton, La Von Daily of Logan, Miss Le Ora Cheal, Lucile Forrest, Hazel Jensen and Sarah Mathias.

The Seagull camp of the Daughters of the Pioneers met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. N. Grover. Roses and carnations were used in decorating the living room, while the dining room was adorned with pink sweet peas and poppies. Mrs. Lena Jensen was guest of honor for the evening, and a sketch of her life was read by her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Anderson.

A solo was rendered by Miss Warda Jensen and a piano selection by Miss Crystal Jeppson. Remarks were given by Mrs. Orpha H. Stohl and Mrs. Stella Phillips, followed by a short talk on the pioneers by Mrs. Ella B. Valentine. After a social hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Ella Reeder and Mrs. P. A. Vincent. Guests present were Mrs. Lena Jensen, guest of honor; Mrs. L. J. Anderson, Mrs. C. W. Knudson, Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mrs. Lurenda Beecher, Mrs. Sophia Beecher, Mrs. Joseph A. West, Mrs. B. G. Knott, Mrs. J. Baker, Miss Eliza Thompson, Miss Selvena Madison and Miss Varda Jensen. There were twenty-one members present.

A sumptuous banquet was held on Thursday afternoon by the Sunflower and Beehive camps of the Daughters of the Pioneers, in honor of all the pioneers and old people residing the First ward. At 3 o'clock the following program was rendered: Reading, Mrs. Fanny Christensen, duet, Mrs. Ella Spencer and Mrs. Mary Farmer; cornet solo, John Forrest; step dance in fancy costume, Jonah M. Clark, accompanied by Mr. Combs, Mrs. H. Spencer and Mr. Forrest; quartet, Mr. Wm. Dredge, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Farmer and Mr. Fuller; solo, Mr. Ed. Lee; fancy costume dance, Miss Lottie Hart, and a song by Mr. and Mrs. Greenbald, who are both over ninety years of age.

Following the program an elaborate dinner was served. The tables were beautifully decorated with bright colored spring flowers and loaded with tempting dishes. Dancing was enjoyed by the old people during the remainder of the afternoon. About sixty persons were present and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

The Kindergarten club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wynn L. Eddy. After a piano selection by Miss Smith, a general business meeting was held. Mrs. R. T. Wiley gave a book review, the subject being child training. This was followed by an open discussion of the points made. Mrs. W. V. Call gave a report on the series of dances being held by the club at the Academy of Music. The last of these series will be held next Wednesday evening in connection with the regular Wednesday night dance. The advisability of repeating the high school play in order to raise funds for the children's playgrounds was reached. Mrs. Melvin Olson became a new member of the club. About twenty others members were present.

The Stake Mutual board entertained Friday evening at the High school in honor of the retiring officers of the organization, namely, Miss Florence Lee and Mrs. Winnie Holst. An invitation from the board was extended to all Mutual workers in this stake, including the young Men's association and about one thousand persons were present. At 8 o'clock a program was held in the assembly hall and each Mutual was represented on the program. The first ward furnished a trio, the second ward a quartet, the third ward a reading, the fourth ward a reading, Harper a violin solo, Hon- eville a chorus composed of twelve young ladies, Willard a quartet and sentiments from Perry, Corinne and Mantua. At the close of the program Miss Thompson and Miss Madison were each presented with a cameo pin, while Miss Lee and Mrs. Holst were presented each with a set of books as a token of love and appreciation from their co-workers for the work which they had done in the organization. Following this the entire party retired to the gymnasium, where music was furnished for dancing by the High school orchestra. Light refreshment were served during the evening.

Miss (pal Knudson, who is attending the University, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Knudson.

The Poppy Drive, held in Brigham last Saturday for the benefit of the war orphans of France, was heartily supported and proved a great success. About twenty young ladies from the High school started on their campaign early in the morning and few people during the day escaped their attack. A house to house canvass was made, besides a thorough canvass of the business section. The children especially were enthusiastic and eagerly gave up their spending money and extra pennies for the cause. All the districts have not yet been heard from, but it is assured that Box Elder county will go over the top and pass her quota of $350.

Mrs. Joseph Bott entertained her social club Friday afternoon. The ladies spent a pleasant time in social chat and sewing and at 8 o'clock the gentlemen arrived and a hot supper was served. The dining table had as a centerpiece pink cut-flowers in a crystal vase. Covers were laid for thirty-one guests.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bryan were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowe Saturday evening.

Garland Society

(Special to The Standard-Examiner) Mr. and Mrs. Asar Evans of Ogden, were Garland guests, during the last week.

Mrs. William Bradford returned from Brigham City, where she attended a farewell party, given in honor of her brother, Mr. D. Peterson, of Brigham, who will leave this week to do mission work for the L. D. S. church.

Mrs. Fanny Harper of Mexico, who has been the guest of the home of her brother, Ephraim Cowles and family, returned to her home last week.

Mrs. W. R. Van Fleet returned from Brigham, where she was in attendance at a wedding reception given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Van Fleet.

Mrs. Viola Burton and son, Dale, returned from a visit to Salt Lake, where they passed the week, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen returned from Malad, Ida., where they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Bowen's niece, Miss Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans spent part of last week in Brigham City, visiting and attending to business matters.

Mrs. George O. Nye returned from a visit to Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Van Fleet, who were recently married in Brigham City, returned to Garland after a week of pleasure. The young couple will make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Abramson have returned from Salt Lake, where they spent part of last week.

A farewell reception was given at the Garland opera house Thursday

Good Looks

Be careful about the corset you wear
It will make or mar your attractiveness

Of one thing be quite sure: the day of the obviously corseted woman has gone. Buy your corsets with the idea of accentuating the natural beauty of your figure. Buy the corset that will give you comfort; the corset that will give you poise and perfect body proportions without a moment's feeling of restraint.

There is not a type of figure however unusual or difficult to fit but can be successfully corseted in

GOSSARD CORSETS

The admired woman who wears a Gossard has an unconscious grace that can only result from priceless comfort and her corset is so much a part of her that the most critical observer cannot trace her charm to its deft support.

Our expert corsetiers will spare neither time nor effort in assuring you the Gossard best suited to your needs.

Wright's
A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Miss Sewell Norton, who will present a number of her pupils in recital Wednesday evening in the First Congregational church.

Miss Sewell Norton will present a number of her pupils in a vocal recital Wednesday evening, April 25, in the First Congregational church, at 8:15 o'clock sharp. Miss Winnie Hutchinson will play the violin obligato. The program for the recital will be given as follows:

"Spring is a Lovely Lady".....Elliot
"Absence".....Caro-Roma
Miss Frances McCready.
"The Lass With a Delicate Air".....Arie
"A Fairy Fantasy".....Godfrey
Miss Myrtice Clinton.
"La Partida".....Alvarez

evening of last week, in honor of Miss Bessie Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of this city. A program consisting of both music and games, was enjoyed by a large assembly. Miss Edwards leaves this week to do missionary work for the L. D. S. church in the central states.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson of Kemmerer, Wyo., left during the early part of the week for her home, after a pleasant visit here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Snyder.

Mrs. Poulton of Parke, Idaho, ventured to her home after a week's visit here with her mother, Mrs. Emma Grover.

Mrs. E. V. Schneider returned Tuesday from a visit with friends in Brigham City and Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Schneider returned Tuesday from a visit with friends in Brigham City and Ogden.

Mr. M. L. Gordon of Salt Lake, is here looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwater have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Landwater of New York, after spending a few weeks here, they will leave for California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nichols entertained Sunday of last week, in honor of Mr.

SEWELL NORTON Soprano

Voice Builder, Coach

Pupils have the opportunity of appearing in frequent recitals.

Spring and Summer Terms

Starting Now

Voices Tested Wednesday

417 Col. Hudson Bldg.